PAWEŁ WOJTAK

SUMMARY

Imagine a creative force who effortlessly bridges two worlds with unparalleled finesse. Meet Paweł Wojtak, born in 1983 in Warsaw, Poland — a true master of blending artistry, innovation, and leadership. An artist, advertising maven, and visionary manager, Paweł’s life is a vibrant canvas where bold brushstrokes meet strategic brilliance. Graduating with honors from the prestigious Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw.

For over 15 years, Paweł has seamlessly balanced two professional paths. As a Creative Director at global advertising agencies, he orchestrates campaigns that harness the power of design, animation, CGI, and advanced post-production. Simultaneously, he pursues his passion as an oil painter, creating large-scale impasto works that resonate with depth and emotion.

MANIFESTO

For me, painting is an inner dialogue of humanity— from an everyday life of a modern man, a man who is full of longing for a simple, slow life in the bosom of nature, yet many dangers still await him - death, war, forces of nature.

I’m inspired by human emotions, their behavior and geolocation. Through my paintings, I strive to capture the beauty of the present moment, inviting viewers to see wonder in the everyday—even when that beauty is concealed within what might initially seem ugly or chaotic. My work seeks to highlight the stark contrast between the raw, authentic beauty of life, the emotions, fleeting moments of tension, and the polished, curated reality shaped by social media.

My painting is a journey of discovery — a dynamic interplay of deliberate spontaneity and an ongoing dialogue with the subject and texture. Every finished piece reflects thoughtful exploration in its composition, texture, and color. My art is characterized by bold palette knife strokes and a meticulously crafted color palette. The process of building structure and texture often mirrors the act of sculpting, as if creating a bas-relief on the canvas.

This creative process evokes in me, a wide spectrum of emotions: fear, focus, restraint, joy, fulfillment, and ultimately, a profound release of stress and burden when the final piece comes to life. It is a deeply personal and transformative experience, where every brushstroke becomes an expression of my inner world.

In contrast to my work in advertising, my artistic practice is a realm of vulnerability, free from client briefs and external constraints.
